The Hebrew Academy offers the following three payment plans to meet the needs of our parents. Please note that we do not accept monthly post-dated checks.

1) Payment in Full – Pay full tuition (check or cash) by Aug. 1, 2011 and receive a 2% tuition discount (after Enrollment Deposit is deducted).

2) Payments through the FACTS Tuition Management Program – Monthly tuition payments are deducted from your checking account. FACTS Tuition Management Company charges $41 per family for this service.

3) Monthly credit card payments charge – Pay monthly tuition by credit card- Visa, MasterCard, Discover or American Express. A Credit Card Authorization Form must be filled out, and your card will be charged on the 1st of the month. A 2.5% surcharge will be added for MasterCard or Visa; 3.0% for American Express.

Financial Aid

Any family who feels they need funding to afford the cost of a Jewish Day school education is encouraged to apply to the Financial Aid program. Special grants are now available for new families, regardless of financial ability. See Financial Aid and Tuition Affordability Programs (page 09) in this packet, or go to www.thehebrewacademy.org/affordability for further details.

Please check the appropriate box on the Application for Admission (03) to receive financial aid information by mail.
